About AISEC'16

The AISEC'16 is a research, invention and application development exposition which showcases innovative projects and papers of learning institutions from Malaysia and ASEAN region.

With approximately 100 presenters and exhibitors, the AISEC promises a highly engaging environment where professionals, students and researchers can explore the innovations that will shape the future of the industry. Themed "Towards an Integrated ASEAN'16 Community through Innovation", this exhibition and conference will feature the creations and innovative products and services from the learning institution, giving attendees an opportunity to see some of the prominent research ideas in action. AISEC'16 also allows inventors and innovators to compete against each other to get their hands on the awards from multiple categories.
